Today's Elections

ROSS SMITH'S WRITE-IN CANDIDACY BREAKS A STRAIGHT PRIMARY TICKET

By DON BARSOTTI

A new and amazing incident, which not even the original framers of our school constitution ever anticipated, has engulfed the political situation of Salinas Junior College. The entire primary ballot is practically one straight ticket with no opposition for any of the candidates, except the presidency, which would have rested with Lester Kaplan had not a last-minute write-in candidate, Ross Smith, made his appearance.

Fulton Withdraws And The Plot Thickens

The situation commenced to appear ominous when Nancy Fulton withdrew from the nomination for secretary, but it became openly evident when Harvey Gardner, candidate for the commissioner of the sophomore class, and Harrison King, presidential candidate, also announced their withdrawals.

Just before the election assembly last Tuesday, when it appeared that none of the candidates had any competition, a few of the more spirited students extemporaneously brought forth a new write-in candidate, namely, Ross Smith. This is entirely in harmony with the school's code of ethics since it is quite constitutional to vote on any write-in candidate.

The candidates, as they appear on the election ballot, are: President, Lester Kaplan; vice-president, Don McNair; secretary, Dorothy Harney; commissioner of finance, Bill Gruber; commissioner of publication, Cecilia Conrado; commissioner of women's athletics, Marjorie Harney; commissioner of men's athletics, Bob Steele; commissioner of student activities, Wesley Hammond, and commissioner of the sophomore class, Ellis Langley. In addition to these is Ross Smith, highly publicized write-in candidate.

Alpha Gamma Sigma Is Host To High School

Alpha Gamma Sigma played host to the Salinas Union High School Scholarship Society recently at an afternoon gathering here.

The program for the visitors consisted of a play given in the Little Theatre, and extended tours of the campus. The affair ended with refreshments served in the cafeteria where they were officially welcomed by Dr. Luella Hall, advisor for the Alpha Gamma Sigma.

The students who were accompanied by their scholarship advisor, Miss Margaret Niesley, head of the social studies department at the Salinas High School, were: Pat Allen, Alice Carr, Bruna Cerri, Lois Chiurri, Ruth Crenshaw, Mary Jo Graves, Setsuko Hado, Jane Holme, Irene Hurst, Eleanor Leach, Bill Lee, Peggy Joyce Marble, Paul Mazzuca, Jennie Panziera, Dorothy Sakasegawa, Kuniko Sasao, Sam Spence, Kenneth Soares, Joe Stave, Beverly Staton, May Tsukamoto, Betsy Volk, Bob Walker, Shirley Weddell, Bruce Willoughby, Juanita Wright, Amy Yanohira, Mary Siu, George Ovana, Mariko Kondo, Sayoko Kobara, and Tebuko Nagasaki.

Visitors were served in the cafeteria by members of the home economics classes.

NAVY TRAINING

Students Must Register Now For V-1 Training in Order to Transfer

As a result of his conversations with prospective S.J.C. enlistees into the Navy training programs, Dean Earl F. Sauble has brought out two points on which there have been some misunderstandings.

First, it is necessary that all freshman and sophomore students now at S.J.C. be registered for V-1 training this semester if they expect to transfer into V-5 or V-7 work later.

Secondly, it must be emphasized that only V-1 men will be selected for entrance into either V-5 aviation or V-7 deck engi-

ANNUAL SPRING FORMAL IS ON DECK FOR TONIGHT WITH AL DAVINA AND ORCHESTRA

JEEP DRIVE

S.J.C. Students Overshoot Mark Buy 3 Jeeps!

Salinas Junior College really has gone over the top when it comes to buying equipment for Uncle Sam's army! Over $2500 has been taken in through the sale of defense stamps, the boom having officially started with the Jeep Assembly, which was held Friday, April 17. At this assembly the eyes of Salinas Junior College students were opened to the pressing need for equipment by a rousing address from Lt. J. K. Connell of Fort Ord, who stressed the need for serious consideration of the matter. His words must have hit their mark as not one, but THREE jeeps have been purchased in the course of one short week—April 17 to 24, inclusive.

Men's Club, Co-eds Help The Buy-a-Jeep Cause

The present drive was started by the Men's Club under the leadership of its president, Donald Wells, and it was through this organization and the Salinas Junior College administration that the Jeep Assembly was presented to the students. Under the direction of Mrs. Maxine Gillis, 12 S. J. C. co-eds were chosen to sell defense stamps during the assembly, at which within 15 minutes $300 worth of stamps were sold. The girls who did their bit were: Winifred Miller, Ramelle Chester, Constance Lamont, Doreen Breese, Margaret Thoman, Jean Hull, Helen Clark, Margie Force, Gloria Dillard, Betty Bingham, Louise Avery, and Hazel Daniels.

they "Don't Wanna Walk Without You, Baby," and ask with trembling voice if "Somebody Else Has Taken My Place?" One hour of dancing time will be devoted to special requests from the floor and stylized arrangements of Esjaysee's school songs will be played.

The Spring Prom is an annual and customary affair in all American colleges. It is held as a tribute to the graduating class and a last group pleasure event before school is disbanded for summer vacation. Esjaysee's Proms always have been super confections, but this one will be served with cherries. The South American Fiesta theme promises to be one of the most colorful of the season.

Crowning of Campus

Queen Is a Main Feature

As a special feature this year, the Campus Queen will be announced and crowned at the Prom. This procedure is an innovation to the ordinary Campus Queen event at S.J.C. Co-chairmen of the queen election committee are Harrison King and A. G. Andrus. Campaigns for the individual candidates are being managed by personal friends.

FLASH! EXTRA MILITARY ISSUE NEXT WEEK

Although this issue is the last of the regular Battery series, a special all-military edition will be printed next Friday in conjunction with a proposition by President Werner to pay tribute to former Salinas Junior College students now in the armed forces. The paper will be sent to grads and non-grads in all branches of the service, as well as to military officials, who will thereby become acquainted with the extent of S.J.C.'s war effort.

News Digest

A musical program will be presented in the Little Theatre today, X period, by the brass choir under the direction of Lorell McCann. Several vocalists also will be featured, rounding out what promises to be a very worthwhile hour.

Any person who has had experience in operating calculating machines will be given the opportunity to take an examination for junior calculating machine operator to be held at a later date. No other experience is necessary. Positions in this line can be obtained anywhere in the country even in this particular area. The applicant should be over 18 and should apply as soon as possible to Miss Ann Lescisin of the Junior College Placement Bureau.

Instructions to graduates have been posted on the main bulletin board which provide full details regarding all phases of the ceremony. Graduating students are expected to note these carefully, and are warned that absence from the general rehearsal (Friday, May 15) will automatically disqualify them from participating in the evening program. The rehearsal will begin promptly at 9:30 a. m. This present schedule is a deviation from the original one, which provided for two general rehearsals.

All graduating sophomores will have the opportunity to add 50 cents to price of their caps and gowns and thereby avail themselves of all services rendered by the Salinas Junior College Alumni Association. See prom posters for details.

ACROSS the Editor's Desk

NEXT WEEK'S ISSUE MARKS LAST OF BATTERIES; DON BARSOTTI IS NEW EDITOR

By MAC

THE BATTERY has been in existence as official publication of Salinas Junior College for nearly eight years. We have been associated with it for two of these years. Next week it will be no more.

It has had a sturdy, awkward, American-boy type of growth that has led it from a helter-skelter infancy into forward-looking adulthood with the usual gamut of youthful ups and downs. Fortunately the landings have been mostly happy.

Next year The Battery will have a new name and a new face. It will also have a new and very capable editor—former Fresno State Collegian writer and friend, Don Barsotti. But we of the graduating staff will find a name hard to forget. It is "The Battery" that we will continue to remember—and the memory will always be pleasant.

* * *

RESPONSIBILITY for '41-42 advancement of S.J.C.'s publication rests almost wholly with its able staff. Easily the biggest name on the masthead during the year has been that of Donald Wells, whose work as The Battery's indispensable number two man has never been fully recognized by his two titles—events editor (fall) and sports editor. In both roles, Wells has done more than his share toward improving the paper, handling news and feature assignments with equal equanimity.

Second honors must go to Cecilia Conrado, who edited Page Two and wrote the most important front page stories. Cece, news-gatherer par excellence and beloved by all, had plenty to do and did it all well. Dorothy Owens, The Battery's effervescent feature ed, took her life in her hands and wrote the provocatively popular Eye Spy. She also found time to author some of the best-remembered pep talks of our time.

The duties of advertising manager were handed over this Spring to Martha Rudd, who has done excellent work, not only in this capacity, but also as a news writer. For her best advertising work to date, see Page Four. Frances Nelson, though new to the staff, has written a string that would do justice to any seasoned reporter. In addition, she took on the exhausting task of sending and receiving papers to and from countless other colleges—this in the role of Battery exchange editor.

Reporter Keith Perkins, not unacquainted with journalistic work, rapidly developed an excellent front-page style and was soon covering the biggest of the big-time stories. Reporter Terry Jones wrote social news (Ace of Clubs), with a personality, front page copy galore, and even poetry.

NOT FORGETTING those who served The Battery faithfully and well during the first semester, there were Johnny Buckley, assistant editor; Billie Burns, advertising manager; Fred Weybret, sports editor; Bob Franklin, assistant sports editor; Margaret Hartigan, special features editor, and reporters Howard Gaba, June Hines, and Leda Sheppard. All deserve the greatest credit for their work.

Also deserving of thanks is George Lee, who served as Battery photographer throughout the season. Without his cooperation, the many pictorial pages of this year's Batteries could not have been realized. In all instances they added immeasurably to the appearance of the paper.

At right is The Battery's outgoing editor, Frank McMillan. At left is Don Barsotti, newly appointed editor of the '42-'43 series, which will be published under a different name. Don, a mid-term transfer from Fresno State College, where he wrote for the Fresno State Collegian, has shown in one semester a capability and writing talent often developed only with much more extensive experience. He will be ably assisted by several of the returning staff members.

NAVY ANNOUNCEMENT TO COLLEGE FRESHMEN AND SOPHOMORES 17^{THRU} 19

You want to serve your country!
Why not serve where your college training will do the most good?

Under the Navy's newest plan, you can enlist right now. You don't have to quit college. You can stay in college, continue your studies and qualify to become a Naval Officer—on the sea or in the air.

Who may qualify

If you are between the ages of 17 and 19 inclusive and can meet Navy physical standards, you can enlist now as an Apprentice Seaman in the Naval Reserve. You will be in the Navy. But you may remain in college, taking regular college courses under your own professors. Your studies will emphasize mathematics, physics and physical training.

After you have successfully completed 1½ calendar years of work, you will be given a classification test. This examination is competitive. It is designed to select the best men for training as Naval Officers.

How to become an Officer

If you qualify by this test and can meet the necessary physical standards, you will have your choice of two courses—each leading to an officer's commission:

1. You may volunteer for training as an Aviation Officer. In this case you will be permitted to finish at least the second calendar year of college work, before you are ordered to active duty for training to become an officer-pilot.

However, at any time during this two-year period, you may have the option to take immediately the prescribed examination for Aviation Officer... and, if successful, be assigned for Aviation training. Students who fail in their college courses or who withdraw from college will also have the privilege of taking the Aviation examination. Applicants who fail to qualify in this test will be ordered to active duty as Apprentice Seamen.

2. Those who qualify in the classification test and do not volunteer for Aviation will be selected for training to be Deck or Engineering Officers. In that case, you will continue your college program until you receive your bachelor's degree, provided you maintain the established university standards.

Those whose grades are not high enough to qualify them for Deck or Engineering Officer training will be permitted to finish their second calendar year of college. After this, they will be ordered to duty as Apprentice Seamen, but because of their college training they will have a better chance for rapid advancement. At any time, if a student should fail in his college courses, he may be ordered to active duty as an Apprentice Seaman.

Your pay starts with active duty.

It's a real challenge! It's a real opportunity! Make every minute count by doing something about this new Navy plan today.

Presented on this page for your admiration and approval is the prospective Queen of Salinas Junior College's Campus and her court. The Esjaysee co-eds pictured here are the candidates voted on last Friday for the title of Campus Queen. The girls are costumed through the courtesy of the A. L. Brown department store and The Fashion dress shop of downtown Salinas. Both stores feature clothes for summer vacations styled to the figures and allowances of S.J.C. students.

These girls are five different types of the most popular girls at Esjaysee. One of them was selected Friday by student vote as the class of the S.J.C. campus. The co-ed who received the majority of votes personifies the average S.J.C. student's ideal girl. The selected Queen will be announced and crowned tonight at the Spring Prom in the men's gym.

The Queen contest this year features straw-colored blonde Jean Claussen, sunlight-at-noon blonde Hazel Daniels, burnished-mahogany brownette Nancy Fulton, taffy-blond Coralie Kirk, and midnight-brunette Joyce Roberts. The girls were chosen as candidates by the presidents of Esjaysee on-campus clubs.

Deviating from the procedure of former years, the campus queen contest sponsored by the social activities committee which combined the affair with its annual Spring Prom. The contest is in charge of A. G. Andrus and Harrison King, who are two well qualified gentlemen for the position.

of white chiffon and a splash print jersey skirt made along dirndl lines with a fitted bodice. This particular style is a super-something on anyone who is as tall as Hazel and is one of many such glamour gowns shown at the Fashion. To make her outfit complete Hazel is carrying a fur cape, which would be the answer to any maiden's prayer, and a metallic cloth evening bag to match.

Joyce, sultry, dark-eyed vision models a very dressy suit of soft turquoise which is absolutely THE dress for that special date or occasion. The suit is made with a long torso length jacket of the English huntsman type that is all the rage today. Her stunning outfit is set off with a chic, matching hat of straw complete with veil and ostrich plume. She carries a huge bag to add the finishing touches to a perfect ensemble.

The dresses featured in the picture above are only a sample of the types of gowns carried at The Fashion. A great variety of clothes, including those cottons which are oh, so popular now, evening gowns, accessories for all outfits, hose, sweaters, coats, both fur and cloth, and a never-ending list of the right things to wear for every occasion can also be obtained at The Fashion, which is situated between Montgomery Ward's and J. C. Penney stores on Main Street in Salinas.

To the left of Miss Claussen is Miss Coralie Kirk, also blonde and also beautiful. Miss Kirk is wearing a two-piece outfit combining polka-dot and plain materials. The button closing is scalloped with a facing of the polka-dots and the short sleeves have a cuff of the same material. The skirt of the polka-dotted print is cut to flatter the figure. If worn as pictured, with a wide-brimmed, light-colored or matching straw and spectator pumps, this outfit will go anywhere.

This page has been presented in collaboration with The Fashion Dress Shop, and A. L. Brown Department Store, both of Salinas. Without the cooperation of these stores and our other advertisers it would have been impossible for The Battery to have maintained its size, frequent publication date, and high quality material throughout the school semester. At this time we wish to thank our advertisers for the school year 1942-1943, and ask students to patronize them in recognition of what they have made possible.

MOTOR MOLLS

Five SJC Co-eds Complete Motor Corps Course

The girls, who six weeks ago signed up for the Women's Motor Corps have come through with flying colors, it was learned from Miss June Handley, course instructor. The girls have torn apart motors from Fords to Buicks and have worked on motors at the Salinas High School. They also were given an insight in the actual life of a "grease monkey" when they visited Gaudin's, the Ford garage, in Salinas. Mr. Louis Eris, proving his confidence in these girls, has given them permission to work on his car, which only goes to show his willingness to accept women's part in the world of today.

Varied Work Done by Women

Work that has been done by these girls has included changing tires, packing wheels, putting grease around the wheel bearings, checking carburetors, distributors and brakes and draining crankcases and replacing the oil, tightening the brakes, and in general learning everything there is to know about practically every make of car. It can be truly said that Esjaysee grease monkeys really know what it takes to keep a car in first class running order.

Journalism Society Is Organized Here

A new Greek letter honorary journalism society has been formed under the direction of Frank McMillan, editor of The Battery, and will join the ranks of the other honorary societies of Salinas Junior College, Alpha Gamma Sigma and the Art Club. The name of the new organization will be Theta Epsilon Gamma and all outstanding publication staff members of The Battery and La Reata will be eligible for membership. Cecilia Conrado has been appointed to make arrangements for pins for the society.

Plans are pending for an inaugural dinner to be held sometime next week. Elections of officers will figure at this time.

MUSIC

Students Are Continuing Bay Tours

By FRANCES NELSON
Music Editor

A program made up by Salinas Junior College students was presented by Pat Ann Adcock, Marian Samuels, Anita Miller, and Licerio Arreola. A double trio of S.J.C. co-eds composed of Pat Ann Adcock, Marian Samuels, Anita Miller, Frances Nelson and Margie Murphy also sang two numbers. The same trio will present a program during X period, May 1, and also one for the Wanderer's Club, May 6, in the home of Mrs. Harry Ashford. Pat Ann Adcock and Licerio Arreola will each sing two solo numbers at this affair.

The music department has done its bit in showing the talents of Salinas J.C. students on the travels of the deputations committee which appeared at the high schools of King City, Monterey, Pacific Grove, Morgan Hill, Gonzales, and Watsonville. S.J.C. students who took part in these programs were Pat Ann Adcock, Naidene Nelson, Ralph Feliz, Jean Hull, Winifred Miller, Gerald Cox, Ellis Langley, and the members of the tumbling team.

The A Cappella choir of Salinas Junior College will sing for graduation exercises May 15, and Pat Ann Adcock also will sing two numbers, "Carissima," by Penn, and "Unforeseen," by Cyril Scott.

All publicity, including the decorated window in the right wing, is in the hands of Gloria Dillard. The favors for the Prom have been selected by Margie Force and Hazel Daniels.

Although it wouldn't be fair to disclose the nature of the favors they do measure up to the high standards set at the Winter Ball. Winter Ball teddy bear favors achieved such fame and popularity that they were asked to put their footprints in the cement at Fleischacker's Zoo. The triangular, you-had-better-buy-on-before-they-are-all-gone, black and gold bids, were planned by Ramelle Chester. Doreen Breese and Frances Nelson compiled the lists and issued the invitations to the patrons and patronesses. Co-chairmaning the entire affair are Commissioner of Student Activities Harold Coehlo and Cecilia Conrado.

The committee would like to thank all faculty members, students, and other persons, including Marsh Glos, who vigorously plugged and assisted in the success of the "Fiesta 1942."

S.J.C. ALUMNI MAY OBTAIN COLOR FILM

Another service of the Salinas Junior College Alumni Association has come to light. A 15-minute moving picture all in color, has been compiled of life and living at S.J.C., and will be sent, on request, to any member of the alumni association. This has been arranged by Carl Reich, commerce instructor and alumni coordinator.

Co-Editors Announce May 6 Release Date

La Reata definitely will be issued May 6, it was announced today by the co-editors of the annual. According to reports from the editors, this year's La Reata far surpasses any yet printed. The cover is made of a padded maroon material and the book itself is replete with pictures and colored plates. There will be a special preview of the annual before the staff and a group of faculty members and their wives. The Battery staff also has been invited to attend.

The price for the annual will be 50 cents for all students who have attended the junior college during both the Fall and Spring semesters, and the students who have been here only during the Spring semester will pay one dollar. Co-editor Pat Adcock stresses that only students showing their student body cards can obtain a La Reata.

The staff members who have brought this year's La Reata to such a successful culmination are: Co-editors, Pat Adcock and Sid Peterman; class editors, Gloria Dillard and Cecilia Conrado; sports editor, Al Perez; photography editor, George Lee, and the rest of the staff including Winnie Miller, Marjorie Force, Don Barsotti, and Hyman Kaplan.

HOME EC WOMEN SERVE LUNCHEONS

The young ladies in Mrs. Hope Baxter's cooking classes now are serving luncheons in the dining room for anyone who wishes to attend. They are to be held fifth period and will cost 25 cents. Reservations must be made in advance.

The meals are very attractive, but inexpensive, inasmuch as the main purpose of the luncheons is to instruct the girls to conserve during war time.

ART STUDENTS MAKE SILK PRINTS

Lovely, colorful silk screen prints have been made by Claire Ford, Margie Murphy, Rose Marie Smith and Dorothy Nagel

One of the many main attractions will be a school-room scene presided over by the ole Professor himself, Don Wells. Teacher puts students Frank Ross, Winnie Miller, Harold Coehlo, Lester Kaplan, Marsh Glos, Pat Ann Adcock, and Bill Earle, through their paces, the three R's, to-wit: Rhythm, rhyme and rugcutting.

Also included in the program will be a play presented by the members of Miss Fraser's English class, and don't go way—in the musical category will be Knight Johnston with his rendition of "Ole Man River," and later a duet with Pat Ann Adcock, McDonald-Eddy style, with "I'll See You Again." Pat also will offer solos. Watch for her interpretation of "Summertime" from "Porgy and Bess." Another thing you can't miss is "We Three—We're All in a Place Together," i.e., a trio featuring Norman Cissna, Frank Ross, and Marsh Glos giving out as only they can, "Stouthearted Men," and (get this), "Ah, Sweet Mystery of Life."

And for one of those pleasant surprises, watch for Nancy Fulton singing "My Hero." She is the discovery of Marsh Glos and Joan Woodward, helped along no doubt by Prof. Wells.

Piano accompaniment will be provided by Nadine Nelson and Bill Earle, and there is yet more—skits and added humor will be supplied by Hal Coehlo, Nancy Fulton, Don Wells and Marsh Glos and Winnie Miller putting all into "Frankie and Johnny."

And for another headline act, don't miss a unique attraction featuring—this is for true—the California state champion weight lifter—for his weight.

DON BARSOTTI is another one "forsaking all others" for a little one at Salinas High School. You'll see them at the Prom . . . No crowding now . . . one at a time, please . . . BERT DOAN is working for her "wings" now . . . seems that there is an "Ernie" mixed up somewhere in the deal . . . Air Base . . . USO and all that . . .

So many people are wondering just why DICK SHUTLER decided that he didn't want to run for president anyway . . . Wonder if MARIE knows anything about it . . .

ECHOES FROM BROOKDALE:

MARGIE FORCE had a big neat blind date that night . . . Real keen, she thought he was . . . and "CECE" CONRADO waited for DON McNAIR for two hours . . . HE had a neat excuse . . . but that just goes to show . . . That's what's wrong with the world today . . . men are getting too independent . . . As we were saying, DON and CECE, with CONNIE LAMONT and SID PETERMAN were so nice and late . . . That all that was left in the way of subsistence was a straggling potato-chip and one deviled egg. . . . But we all know that it's the early bird that catches the sandwiches and stuff . . .

NORMAN CISSNA is going to be at his best Graduation Night 'cause MARY LOU is coming all the way from L.A. just for to see Norman take a bow . . . and say (to the little piece of paper, please) "You mean so much to me," or "It's been so long."

"Well, we all want to know who dun it," or "Did YOU take the pictures of the Campus Queens?" . . . All we know we hear from our special gents, and all he says is that the pictures will all come back in installments . . . not to the bulletin board, but to the little owners themselves . . .

BETTE DEVINE entertained JOE MADDELINA, her baby from Mather Field, here the other day . . . She and BONNIE RUSKO dashed up to the Field for graduation not so long ago . . . Which brings up the question, "Just why did Bonnie go up?" . . . Sorry, we didn't find out his name.

We just got our favorite ear knocked off because of one big mistake last issue concerning SALLY WILSON and SOMEONE she threw life-savers at in the library . . . It was NOT BILL MATHEWS . . . but BILL NICHOLSON . . . So sorry!

Always an entertaining foursome on the bus are BEN SCHNE-REGER and CAROL DUER, and WALLY BANTA and RUTH JENSEN . . . They tell each other's fortunes, or something like that. It's in the cards, anyway . . .

So TEREY JONES is so excited she can hardly talk since "Ricky" (Fred) McINDOE is home again . . . But when you get time . . . ask her, "Is the cavalry obsolete in modern warfare, or isn't it?"

Seen maneuvering to the rhythms of Maleville's orchestra at Del Monte the other night were PHIL WILSON and VIRGINIA MILLS . . . BARBARA'S little sister . . .

ORIN FORD is going to get his favorite fender of his big auto knocked off by the lady across the street if he doesn't find another parking place other than her driveway.

Women Give Mothers' Tea, Fashion Show

The Upsilon Gamma Chi, Salinas Junior College women's organization, entertained their mothers at a tea on Tuesday, April 28, from 2 to 4 p. m., in the living room of the college's home economics department. The featured part of the elaborate program planned by the co-eds of the junior college was a fashion show presented by the Home Economics Club.

In order to demonstrate how to save, many of the articles modeled by the girls were made over from old clothing in keeping with national defense needs. The U.G.C. members who modeled the clothes which they themselves have made were: Marie Womack, Mary Jean Metcalfe, Marilyn Brockman, Betty Bingaman, Ellen Morgantini, Mildred Jang, Geretha Keithley, Jean Stanley, Ruth Cartnell, and Emma Yamaguchi.

The four committees and their chairmen for the affair were: Foods, Mildred Jang; decorations, Ellen Morgantini; serving in office. He majored in engineering and made good grades throughout his entire time at the college. Spaulding's sport was football and he worked off-campus while at S.J.C. At the conclusion of his college career he joined the local unit of the California National Guard, and when taken into the regular army worked his way up to a second lieutenant's commission.

Spaulding's history is representative of the hundreds of young men from all over the country and particularly from this section who will be the unnamed heroes of Bataan and its exhausting battle.

And we've been telling you about all the fellows in the air corps, and now, of course, you've read in The Battery that S.J.C. is going to be its own training center for the army air corps. President Werner, who is to be designated faculty air force advisor, recently received a letter from Major Jay K. Montgomery of the Stockton Field Air Base emphasizing the imperativeness of enlisting every qualified young man now ready for military service between now and July 1, 1942.

Conference Meet Tomorrow Klauke, Towns, Short Freeman, Perkins In Santa Rosa Contest

Although the Panthers' pre-conference meet chances consist mainly of a possible one-two in the broad jump, the five-man track squad representing Salinas in the Santa Rosa-sponsored meet, tomorrow, also will compete in the century, high and low hurdles and discus.

Named on Coach "Tiny" Hall's entry list, which was returned at the first of the week, were Henry Klauke, Frank Freeman, Ed Towns, Major Short, and Keith Perkins. Freeman is to double in the broad jump and 100, while Towns will "triple" in the high and low hurdles and broad jump. Klauke is entered in the 100, Short in the discus, and Perkins in the quarter-mile.

Favored to run away with the meet are the strong Sacramento Junior College tracksters led by Joe Batiste, hurdler, high jumper and javelin thrower of no mean ability. The Sacramentans not only won the conference last year, but annexed the national title as well, and they are reputedly stronger this season than last.

Governing this 21st annual conference track meet will be the N.C.A.A. rule book, while the conference commissioner, Paul Mohr, will referee the meet and will have full authority to settle all meet problems.

Track and field events have been scheduled in the morning and afternoon while trials will be run in the 100, 220 hurdles, and 440.

While in Santa Rosa, the track team probably will make the Hotel Santa Rosa its headquarters.

Panthers Lose To San Mateo In Close Match

On previous meetings with Modesto and San Francisco, the Panther netsters experienced complete routs, as their opponents triumphed in every singles and doubles match, however, against San Mateo, last week-end, it was a modified story, with Salinas losing, 4-3.

Only singles victory for the Panthers was afforded by Gene Franco in his match with Ulrich, Mateoan "top man," however, the doubles combinations of Franco-Gruber and Garguilo-Scrivani won their matches over Ulrich-Selover and Nourse-Schmidt, respectively, to strengthen the Salinas match score.

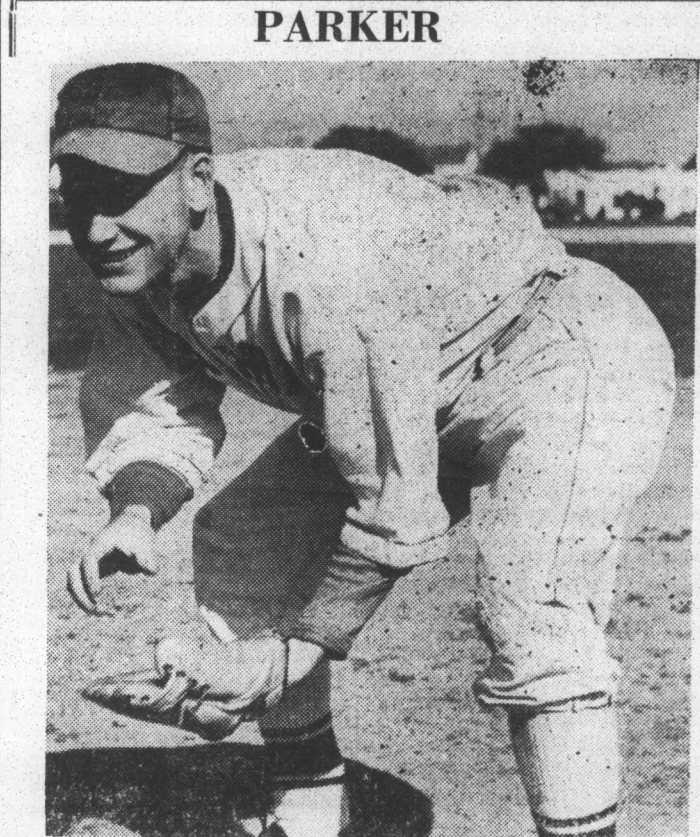

Results of the other singles: Selover (SM), Garguilo (S). Schmidt (SM), Gruber (S). Nourse (SM), Scrivani (S). Drisco (SM), Harper (S).

Next scheduled match for the netsters is with Menlo next Monday, May 4.

IRVING PARKER, Panther third baseman, was known to college sports fans prior to baseball season through his play on the basketball squad. Parker played errorless ball and hit in both games with San Mateo, last week-end. However, the Panthers lost both ends of the doubleheader.

Double Defeat

BASEBALLERS NICKED BY SAN MATEO; PLAY TODAY

Previously engaged in a schedule studed with high school practice games and "rained out" of their scheduled conference games the Salinas baseball team finally started their NCJCC season by losing both ends of a doubleheader to San Mateo, last week-end, 9-2 in the first, and 7-5 in the second.

In both games the Panthers managed to equalize the hitting of the Mateoans, but in the run department the Salinas squad lagged considerably. Ed Garcia pitched the first game, allowing five hits, while Pedrazzi hurled the second and was reached for eight hits.

In the first game, Salinas erred twice and in the second game, the Panthers committed three miscues. San Mateo committed a single error in both games.

GYMNAST SQUAD CONTINUES PUBLIC APPEARANCES DURING SUMMER VACATION—PEAVY

Although performances on 43 programs during the current school year have made the Salinas Junior College tumbling team the most prominent of the college athletic squads, gymnastic and tumbling activities will continue after the close of school, according to Coach G. Darwin Peavy.

The continuance of the sport has been necessitated because of a previously planned summer schedule of appearances and the regular summer practice sessions.

Meanwhile, the team continued its school program by appearing last night at the Salinas Masonic Hall and Sunday for the Red Cross at Fort Ord.

Capable of impromptu and last-minute performances, the team has appeared on an average of more than once a week during the year, entertaining as far south as the San Miguel USO and as far north as Palo Alto and the California-Stanford basketball game in March.

At the conclusion of the fall football season, during which time the tumblers made many half-time appearances, the team included basketball games on their schedule, as well as the Monterey and Santa Cruz County fairs, The San Miguel, King City, Monterey and Salinas USO's, the Fort Ord Red Cross, various service clubs and fraternal groups in Salinas and vicinity, and at high school assemblies throughout the junior college district.

Tumbling has been a popular activity at the college since 1937, when Mr. Peavy took over the work. This year, for the first time, girls have been admitted to the group, and four have received medals for outstanding work. These include, Beverly Andreason, Gloria Bencich, Edythe Smock and Haroldene Vaughan.

Men receiving awards are: Ira Corpening, Amon Fonville, Lloyd Trine, Alfred Gunn, Ronald Gordon, Elwyn Mann, George Fitzsimmons, and Robert Wray.
